John W. Schneck

In Memoriam

When Mr. Schneck passed away in March, our class and the entire school lost not only a principal, but a true friend. Mr. Schneck was head of the physics department, and then vice-principal for many years. In 1953 he became principal. He was the first director of the high school band. Most of us remember him best as the enthusiastic leader of community singing — for his favorite songs, "Grandfather's Clock," and "Stout Hearted Men."

Mr. Schneck was always fair, understanding, and keenly interested in the welfare of his students. We shall remember him not only as an able administrator, but as a great-hearted man who devoted himself to Riverside. In appreciation for all that he did for us, and in his memory, we dedicate this book.

To Bea -
 I've been thinking about you. We had so much fun at Senesee

SENIORS

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

As we, the January graduates of 1954, write this, our final will, we are just a bit sad. We shall miss Riverside for the years here have been truly good years.

We certainly hope that we have faithfully upheld Riverside's noble traditions and left a few of our own to become precedents, perhaps. We want the torch of Riverside's greatness to remain burning brightly, and now as we depart, we declare the following to be our last will and testament:

Shirley Schreiber leaves her "golden tresses" along with a bottle of "Light'n Bright" to Janet Dopki. Jim Hishmeh wills his title of "Arab" to anyone with the necessary qualifications.

Gloria Gumina leaves her friendly good nature to Barbara Koch.

Bob Henzl gives his position of senior "wheel" to any versatile lad capable of turning it.

Donald Mueller leaves, still making careless comments.

Louise Pick, Margie Gove, and Marjie Turner leave their trio to any three deserving pals at East.

Nina Amoroso gladly gives her ROW 1, SEAT 1, classroom desks to Marie Anello, another A.

David (Einstein) Weldon donates an unused adding machine to someone who needs it more than he.

Shirley Liss hurries off to catch up with Ray.

Chuck Dreyfuss and his trombone leave together, still trumping for Riverside.

Dolores Germano leaves Sharon Murdoch to "shuffle" along the halls.

Bob Goessner bequeaths his curly hair to Artie Huth.

Gertrude Bingenheimer, Jean Langdon, and Elaine Coons leave little brothers and sisters at East.

Marion Stops leaves that "crazy cackle" to Dorothy Moffatt.

Pat Sergeant gives her Senior Secretary's Book to Dotty Meide.

Ted Zollendeck leaves still yelling T-E-M!

Barbara Mosher and Janet Weber resign their sneaky study hall tactics to Jerry Gruenwald and Tom Kelepouris.

Phil Currier leaves Bob Resch to all those who admired his big beautiful eyes.

Charlotte Cherty and Marilyn Rowe go with their typewriters still clicking.

Ward Perket, Ray Schmitt, and James Seeger leave just as they entered — oh, so quietly.

Betty Nerad hurriedly departs to join all her old pals.

Marilyn Grupp takes off like a big bird to ascend her stairway to the sky.

Don Kowalski wills his "boisterous" disposition to Angelo Nazeres.

Carrie Suchomski leaves just a few tardy slips to Judy Andrews who will probably need them.

Midge Weber bequeaths her ping-pong prowess to Joyce Whitcomb.

Ray Wilvers and Dave Simmons leave Tom Rice and Dick Aaron to give Mr. Suchy grief.

Ron Kolwitz and Tammy Smith depart with sketches still fluttering from their pens.

Dick Goetz leaves that "quiet" nature to Russell Rose.

Anita Neumann leaves her 6th hour study hall to anyone who thinks he can cope with persistent peekers.

Jack Dorsch wills that "sweet smile" to Myron Stamos.

Dave Black and Bob Rowan leave, — completely changed individuals.

Carol Andrews leaves "Mousie" Mueller to amuse Mr. Pleister 4th hour.

Lila Dessert and Helen Wall go with the same amount of enthusiasm and school spirit they always had.

Rocco Cincotta leaves Barbara Pytlik, but only during school hours, he says.

Beverly Schmit wills a very "neat" locker to some unsuspecting young freshie.

Claire Randa leaves her cousin Pat to carry on the Randa name at East.

Mary Kalimannis bequeaths her seat in 317 to any freshie who promises to be as quiet as she.

Mary McCairns wills her dramatic ability to anyone who can match it.

Barry Fletcher leaves his "easy hours" to anyone who likes to sleep all morning.

Sharon Doke leaves the many friends she has acquired in her extended stay at East.

Lorraine Brown and Dorothy Horvat depart with sweet memories of Mrs. Boltz's speech class.

Andra Turlais wills her physics experiments to anyone who can make them work.

Warren Adameak leaves the title of "Ace" to be remembered rather than used, for we've all agreed that the glory of that name should remain his alone.

We, the 12A's leave four front rows of auditorium seats to the few fortunate 12B's who we hope will be able to fill them.

CLASS PROPHECY

As the nurse, JEAN PARKER, showed me into the doctor's office, I couldn't help but wonder if I would be here if I hadn't entered the advertising business. Due to the extreme tension of the business, I had developed the habit of talking in slogans, and I had reluctantly come to the psychiatrist to rid myself of this mania.

"DR. HUSTON will be back shortly," the nurse said. "Ever since the Democrats got back into the White House he's been helping President HOWELL and Vice-President LOHR with their problems. The 'phone bills are terrific. Just make yourself comfortable; there's the couch."

Not trusting myself to answer, I nodded, and as soon as she left the room I went over to the files which I had noticed weren't locked. Wondering if anyone had any odder psychoses than I did, I became convinced that they did when I saw the names of the doctor's patients. They were all members of the June graduating class of 1954 of Riverside High School. At least they all have jobs good enough to pay doctor bills, I thought. I felt ashamed of myself because I hadn't kept in touch with any of my former classmates except BOB HERRON, and I only saw him because he worked in the same Ad agency.

Looking through the files, I saw that DICK AARON, famous criminal lawyer, had a persecution complex. He was convinced that all of his clients that were sent to jail were out gunning for him. As a result he always wore a long white beard and a flowing black cape in order to look inconspicuous. The famous composer, JOHN BARON, could not concentrate on his music because every time he noticed someone passing his window he would stop work to yell down the street "D'ya have any stamps?"

It seemed as if several of the girls had gone into some phase of office work, and they kept on hearing the typewriter bell even after hours. Poor KAY BRESSLER, JEAN DELNO, KATHRYN FLAHERTY, ANN JANKOWSKI, GERTRUDE KALTENBACH, GERALDINE KNOPPA, KATHLEEN HARTHUN, and DOROTHY WARANKA. It must be an occupational disease.

In the file marked "Teachers" I saw the names of quite a few of my former friends. They were all suffering from the same malady; they wanted to kill their pupils. For shame, LOIS GUMZ, PETER KAMUCHEY, DOROTHY KWICIEN, SANDY SUITS, and MARY LOU THORNBURG!

A whole mass of the fellows in the class had gone on to become engineers. ARTHUR JUESCHKE and NEILL LUEDTKE were architectural engineers, WILLAM KRAMER was a design engineer, JACK LUECKENBACH and JAMES WOLF were civil engineers, and DONALD POWICHROSKI was an electrical engineer. They had all suffered nervous breakdowns because they were all competing with each other to design the Universal Nations Building.

Some of my classmates were under some rather odd delusions. JANE BAKER wanted to ride around the world on a horse. TONY DI TRAPANI was on a never ending search to find out how to make money without any work. ELMER HOFFMAN didn't want to do anything. GAY MEYER was convinced that she was the fat woman in the circus, and MARIE NEITZKE wanted to teach school on Mars.

I heard the doctor talking to the nurse in the outer office, so I hurried through the files, just glancing at the occupations instead of the diagnoses. BARBARA BERGSTROM and DIANE MILLER were physical therapists. DAVID EVANS was a physicist, FRED GRUDNOWSKI a printer, and SUSAN HECKER a horse-breeder. JOANNE HOHOLIK and DIANE LORENZ were fashion designers; BYRON JORDAN was an ambulance driver.

The folder marked Television had an unusual number of people from the same show in it. The show, directed by ANNE SHIPMAN, was written by ANN MUSGROVE, the photography was done by KENNETH NIX, MILDRED MEAD danced in it, and the male and female leads were played by ROGER LUNDHOLM and CAROL McEACHRON. DARBY EWALD played an elderly lady, KARL SCHNABEL was in the band, PETER JENSEN ran the slide machine used for commercials, and TOM RICE announced.

It looked as if the government didn't agree with others besides the President and the Vice-President. PATSY ROSENAU, who worked for the F.B.I., NELLIE PARKS, who was a social worker, PEGGY LONGBRAKE, who was a forest ranger, and MARIANNA KAULINS, who was an interpreters, were all included in the doctor's files. They all had a mania about a raise in the budget; every time they saw an envelope addressed to them, they thought it was a notice that their salaries had been raised. Some people in medicine had the same idea — chemist ROBERT UEBERFLUSS, and laboratory technician NANCY PHELPS.

A bulky folder proclaimed "College Life," and therein I found that a group of students had started an athletic college, co-educational naturally, and a course in the college entitled you to the degree of Doctor of Sports. The male coaches were LOUIS AVENI, JOE ENEA, HOWARD BIERMAN, ED NICHOLS, and DON SPOTT. DOTTY MEIDE was professional cheer-leader, and JOAN SHAW was Dean of Women, with RON MAKOWSKI Dean of Men.

The doctor also took care of the famous oil tycoon, owner of the Standard Oil Company, NORMAN SCHECTERLE, although he didn't limit his practice to the rich, because I found the names of the former MERRY VALLEE and GLORIA VOIGHT, housewives.

As I finished looking at the last name, the doctor hurried into the office. Motioning me to sit down he asked me my name, and why I had come to visit him.

"My name is SANDY FRIEDMAN
I've come here for your aids
Because I talk in slogans.
How're you fixed for blades?"

VARSITY FOOTBALL

We had a reasonably successful football season this year, winning 5 out of 8 games. As the season progressed the team showed excellent depth at nearly all positions. We were happy to have with us once again as coach, Mr. Potter, who did an excellent job with the team of 1950. Our team retained the Art Krueger trophy by winning the game with our traditional rival, South.

FROSH SQUAD:

Capt. Elect Rabe, Prietz, Larese, Gellar, Domoracki, Lucas, Fandry, Longbrake, Sutter, Brier, Thisted, Kiedrowski, Cira, Ferencerich, Mahoney, Morinelli, Tonner, Stitl, Daehn, Van Arck, Snively, Gibbon, Sanfelippo, Green, Grittinger, Peterson, Stielka, Rasch, Denniston, Wharton, O'Marra, Ramon, Schumacher, Kurmis, Walch, Ellsman, Gerdts, Fritz, Feivar, Lore and Tratnick.

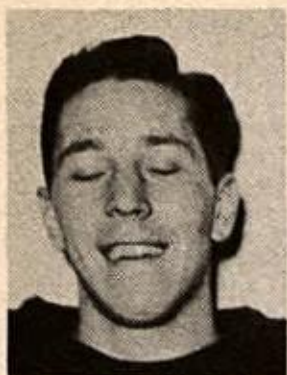

FROSH-SOPH FOOTBALL

The Freshman and Freshman-Sophomore squads enable boys to compete against those of their own growth and ability. They encourage greater participation and permit each boy to gain experience so that he may achieve his goal, the varsity squad.

E. Burczak, J. Costa, P. Downing, D. Fliss, G. Frankovic, L. Evanoff, K. Haeberle, A. Jordan, W. Kadlic, T. Kaminski, K. Kanz, T. Kelsey, G. Melka, R. Niggermeyer, R. Paulini, R. Smukalla, R. Spott, J. Struss, M. Sullivan, W. Suszek, R. Schumacher, R. Wilterdink.

The chants and cheers heard at football and basketball games should be accredited to our cheerleaders. They did a fine job of leading us in cheering our teams on. This credit is due to Miss Green for teaching the cheers and then having them perfect them.

WRESTLING

Wrestling has taken a firm hold upon Riverside. This sport enables boys of all sizes to compete on equal terms. This was our first year in the conference, and great individual progress was necessary to compete with other city high squads. The fine spirit and willingness to sacrifice for the benefit of the team was very outstanding.

Standing: Capt. Milton Hart, Byron Jordon, Terry Kelsey, Ron Sorvinski, Ron Westphal, Pat McCarthy, Gunther, De Muth, Hilary Cira, Coach Fallon.

CROSS COUNTRY

CROSS COUNTRY A TEAM:

Larry Grapp, Don Spott, Mr. Pleister, Coach, Burt Fier, Paul Williams, Roger Lundholm, Howard Bierman, Ken Spath.

CROSS COUNTRY B TEAM:

Fier, J.; Bauch, R.; Spath, K.; Coach Pleister
Kent, T.; Nelson, J.; Pollack, D; Phillips, R.; Rumsey, L.

MR. PLEISTER

Our cross-country team wasn't too successful this year partly due to the shortage of material. The team didn't have any individual stars, but the first three or four runners tried to stay close together. Every runner made a sincere effort to improve the team.

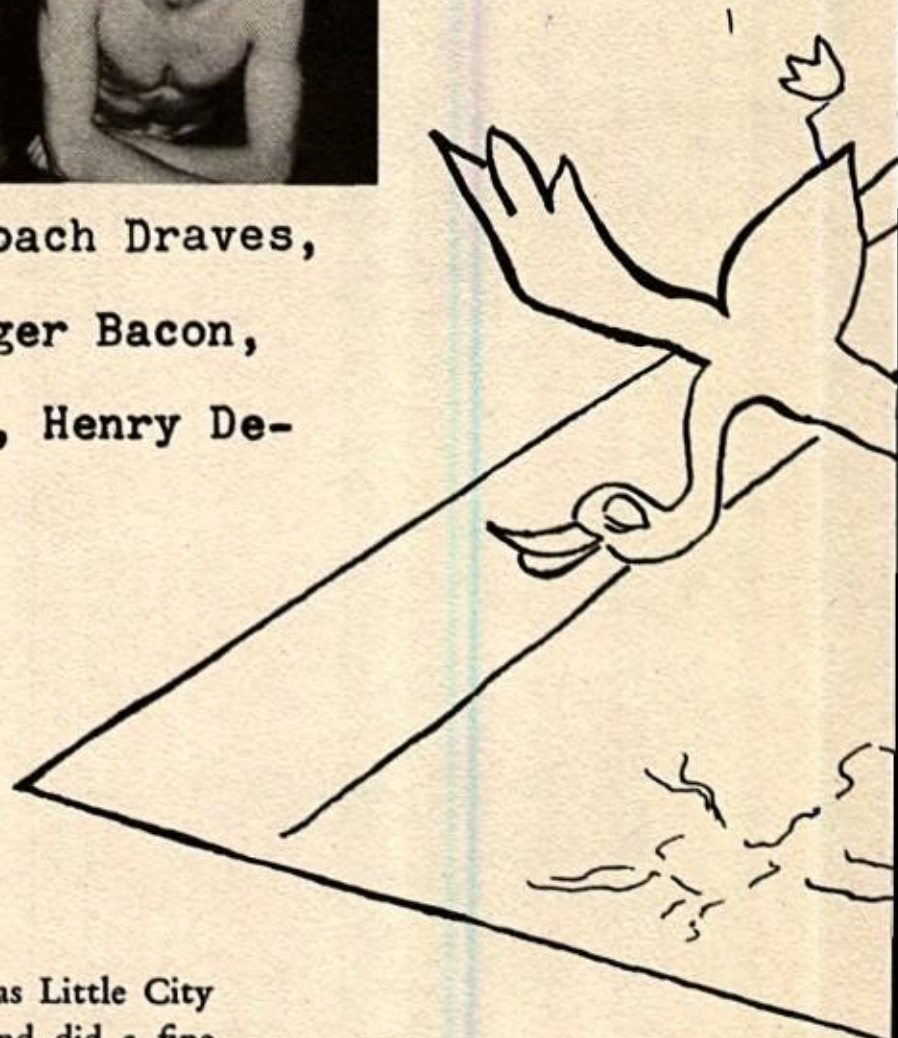

The B squad had a very good season winning every meet they entered. Although they were not able to enter a full team in the North Sectional and city meets because of a shortage of boys. Stan Pollock was the individual winner in the North Sectionals.

SWIMMING

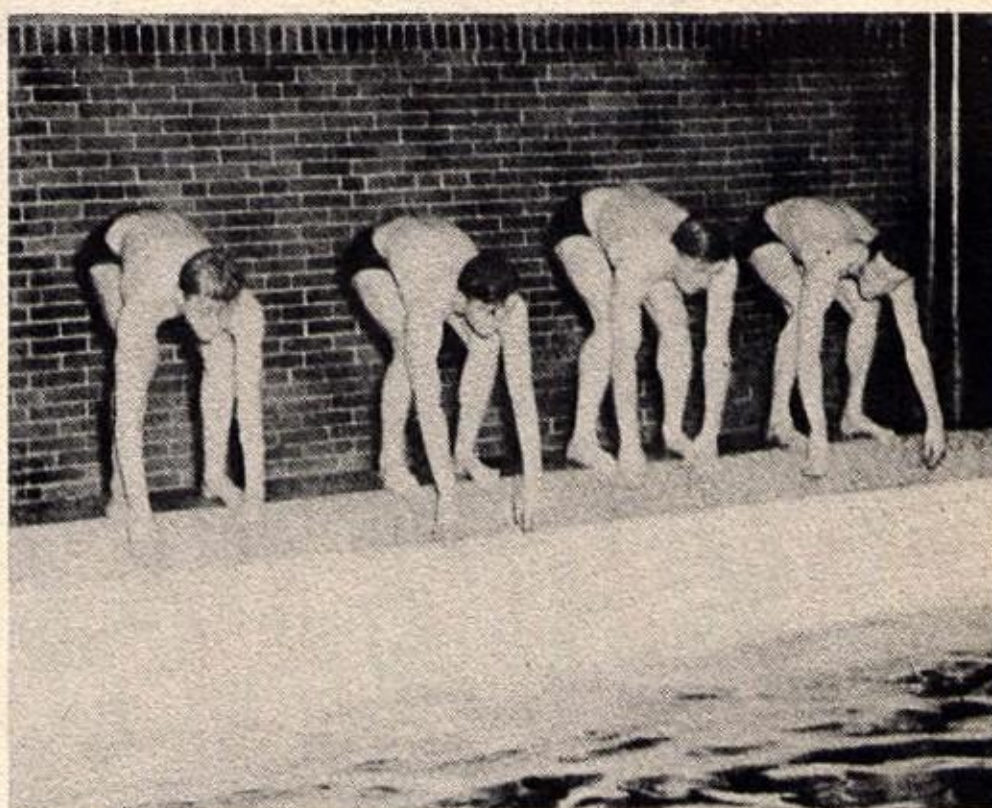

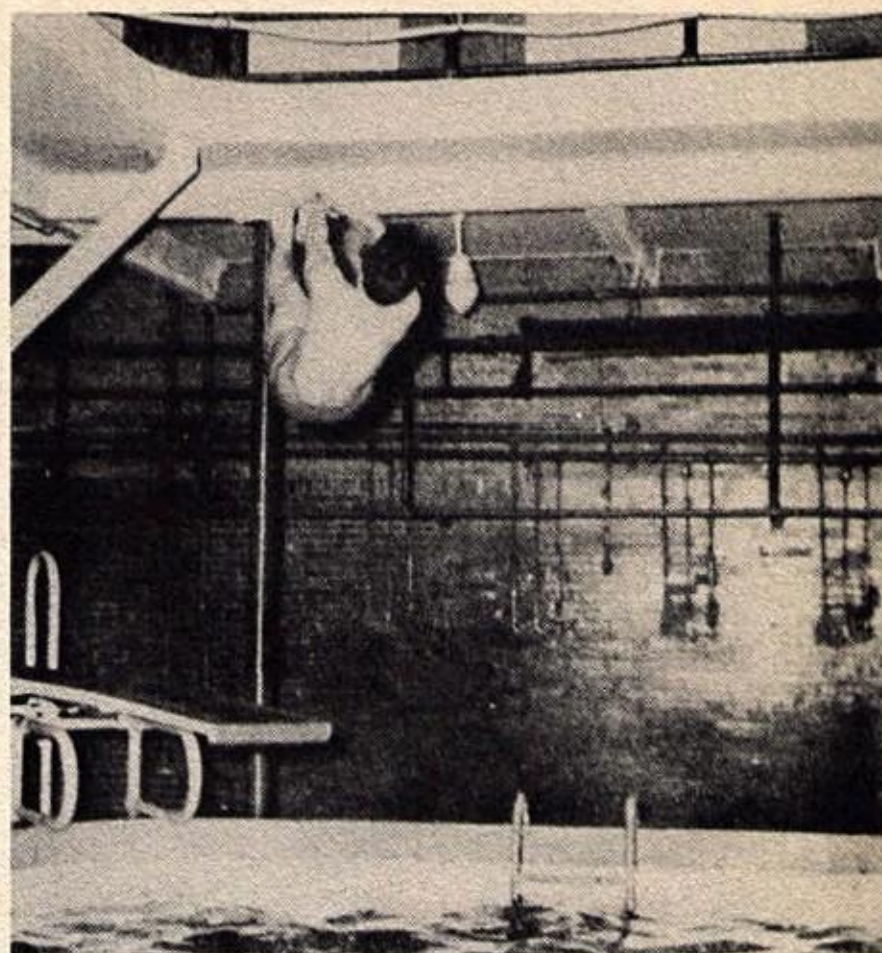

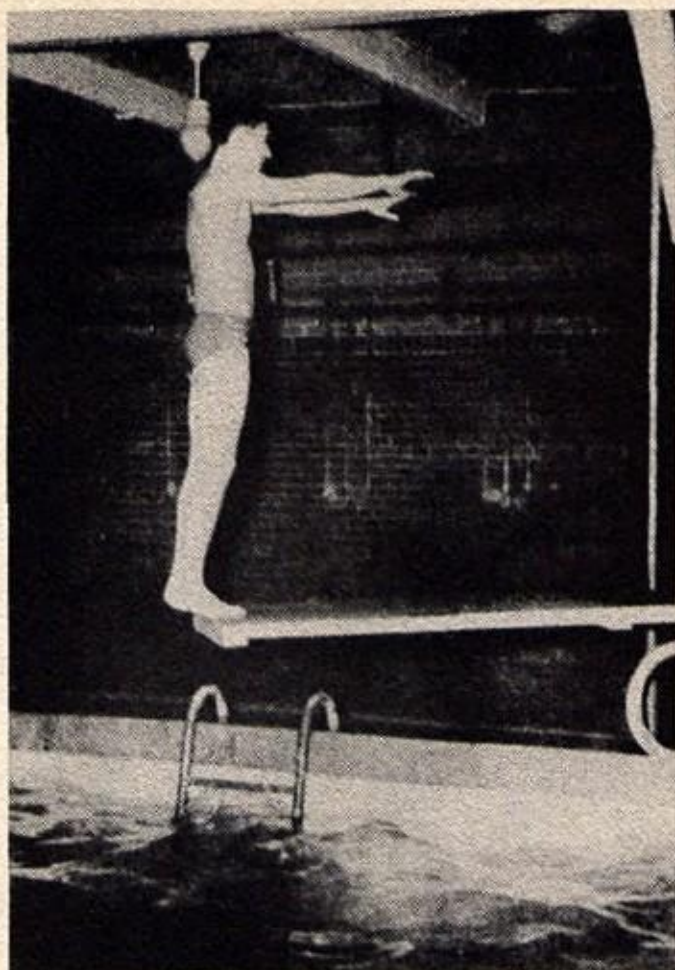

1st row. Jerry Roszak, Jim Mortonson, Coach Draves, Gary Bezella, Clem Rybacki
 2nd row. Jim Robinson, Donald Fliss, Roger Bacon, Tom Taylor, Frank Lovrien
 3rd row. Tom Settergren, Dave Holzhauer, Henry De-Boer, Ray MacNair

SWIMMING

The season was a success as the team dethroned South as Little City Champions. After an erratic start, the boys settled down and did a fine job. The outstanding individual performance was David Holzhaur's record breaking 2:15.7 in the Little City 200 yard free style. It was a young and spirited group which should carry on next season.

BASKETBALL B TEAM (Emblem Winners):

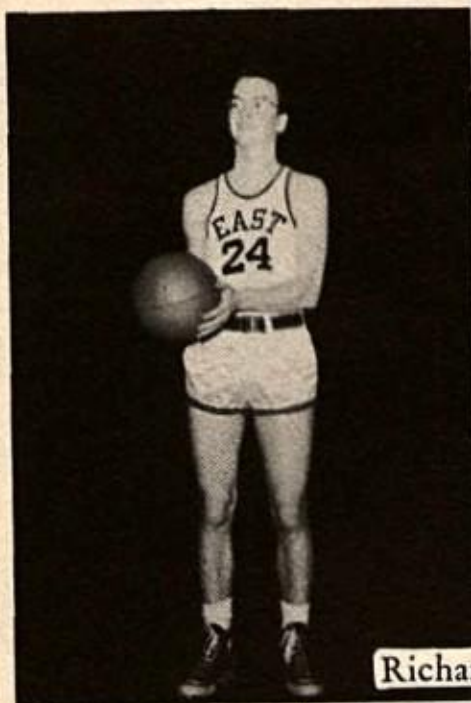

C. Eimon, R. Featherly, R. Fields, K. Haeberle, W. Hesse, G. Sutherland, D. Mannes, P. Walsh.

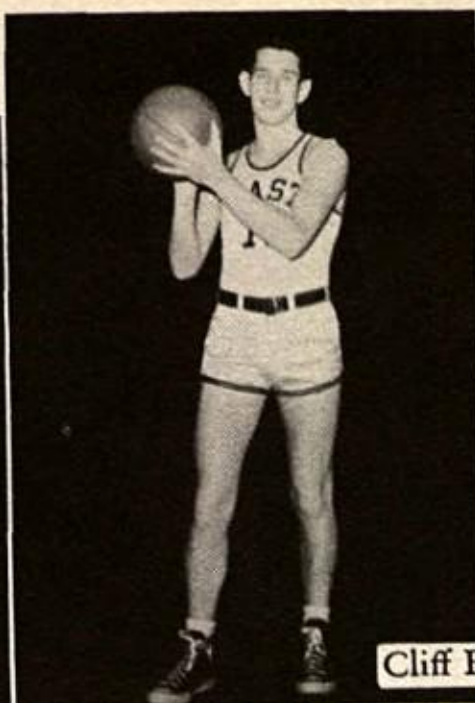

This year the basketball team had a very successful season in winning 8 out of 11 games in conference play and finishing in second place. The team scored an average of 64 points a game, the highest average in the history of the school. In the regional tournament games at Shorewood, the team bowed only to Waukesha.

The good record is due in part to four graduating lettermen, Jim Leverson, Gerry Stoltman, Jay Schwarm and Peter Kamuchy.

GOLF

Golf is one of the few sports that may be played during a whole lifetime. The city schedule this year will provide dual matches with seven city schools. This year the state golf meet is coming to Milwaukee for the first time; the city schools will act as hosts.

MR. DRAVES

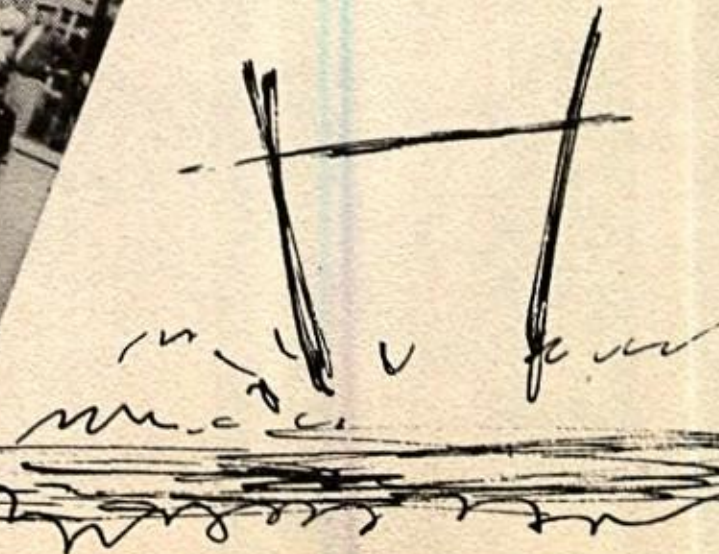

Another banner tennis season is expected. Three lettermen and a reserve are returning to try to recapture the championship from Washington. (Jim Walker, Peter Walch, Ray MacNair and Tom Schulte form a strong nucleus which will be supported by several seasoned reserves, John Baron, Art Loos and Roger Lundholm.) If the team does not lose any of its members, East will again show well in the city championship race.

This year we have five lettermen returning from last year's team. Pete Kamuchey has had experience in the high hurdles, high jump, and pole vault. Tom Street should prove again to be a better than average sprinter, besides being the anchor man on the relay team. Gil Wettstein, an experienced quarter miler will also compete on the relay team. Gerry Stoltman is also returning in the quarter mile. These running events are our strongest. Gilbert Sutherland is the only returning letterman in the weights. If all the new boys come through, Coach Pleister thinks we will have a good season.

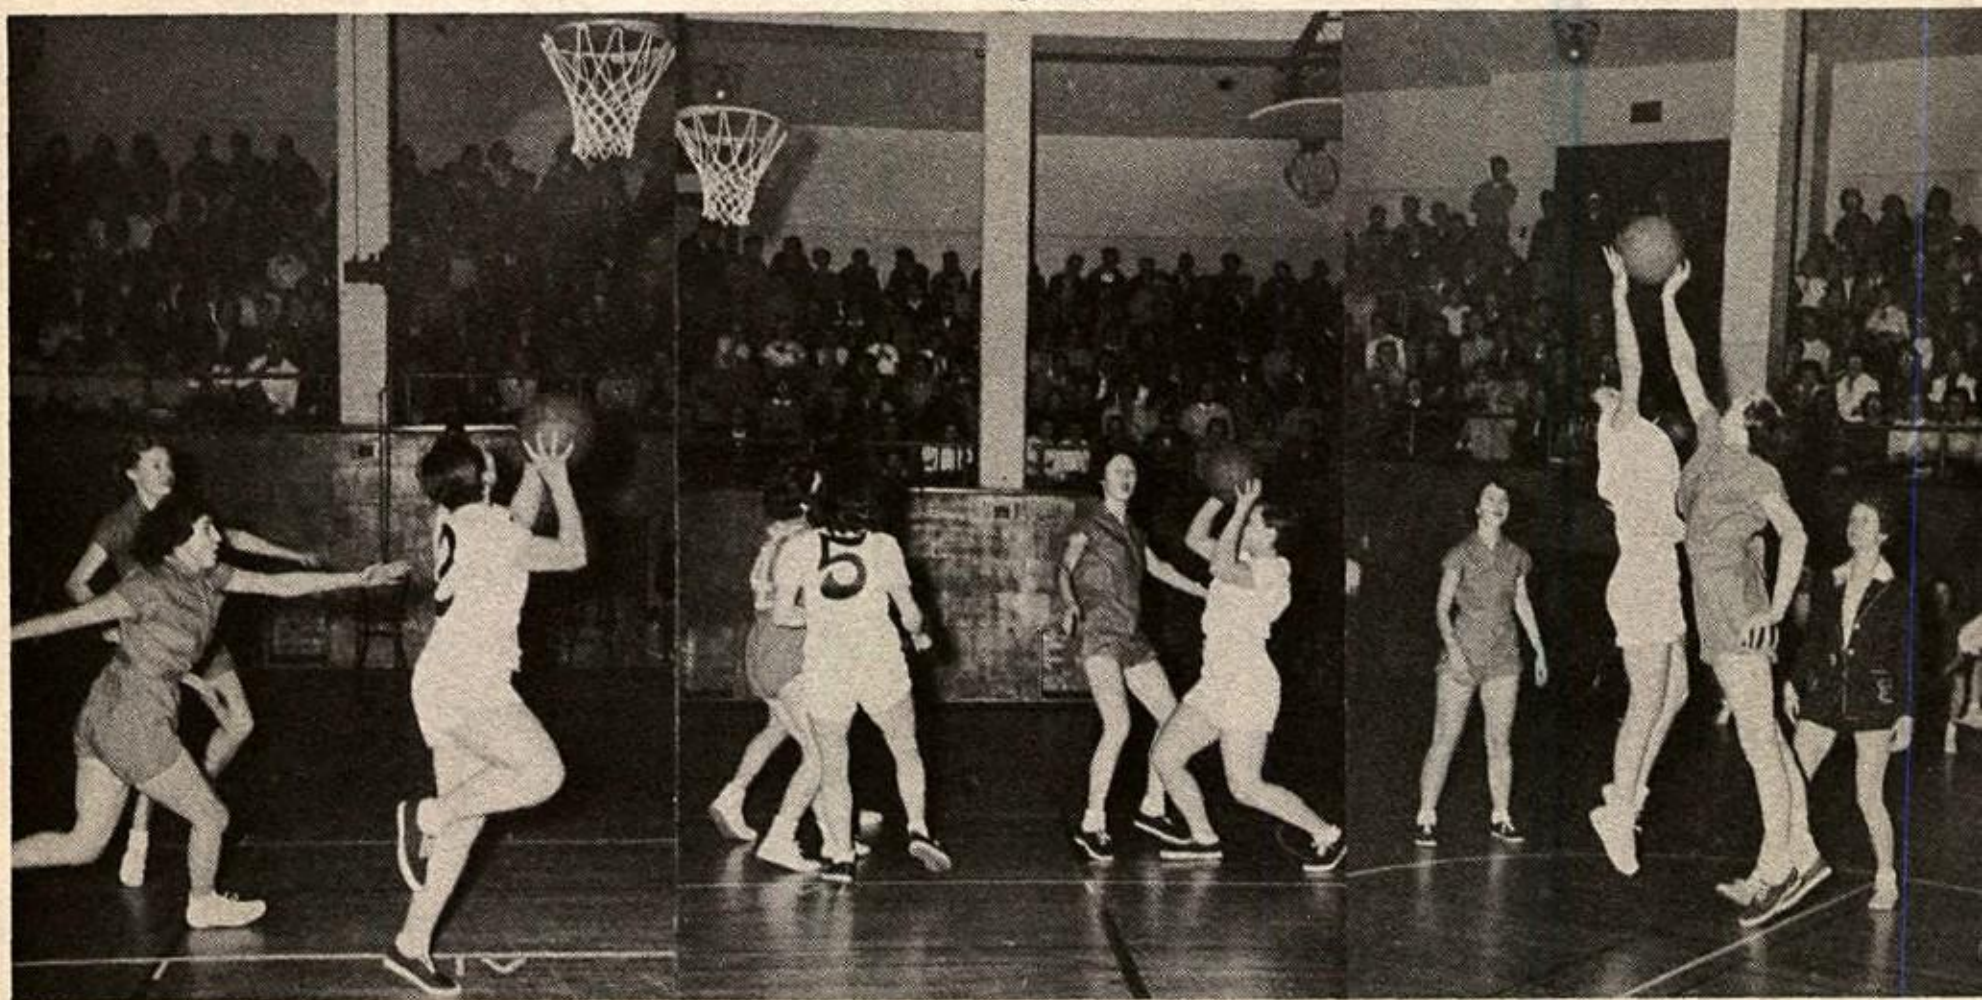

G. A. A.

Another full and eventful year has just come to a close in the Girls' Athletic Association. Under the helpful guidance of Mrs. Laden and Miss Green, the girls hold tournaments in ping-pong, basketball, volleyball, badminton, and softball. Besides participating in activities with students at Riverside, the girls have taken part in playdays involving other schools.

Several girls were awarded the G.A.A. "R" this year for their service to the club. Every girl works for an award of this kind, but few ever earn enough points to receive one.

ACTIVITIES

Dick Aaron, Pres.; Joan Hoffman, Secy.; Tom Street, Vice Pres.; Anne Shipman, Mary Lou Thornburg, Mike Melvoin, Joan Goll, Paul Williams, Peggy Longbrake, Mr. Lean.

The cabinet, composed of the officers of the major clubs throughout school, is our own legislative body. Any problem which arises in the school is discussed and rectified if possible. The members present the students' point of view on the problem and together with the faculty, try to solve it in the best way possible.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Mike Melvoin, Pres.; Mary Lou Thornburg, Secy.; Joan Goll, Inter High Council.

The Student Council is composed of one representative from each homeroom. They serve as a connecting link between the student body and the Cabinet. This year, under the guidance of Mr. Draves, they organized the Pep Club to promote school spirit.

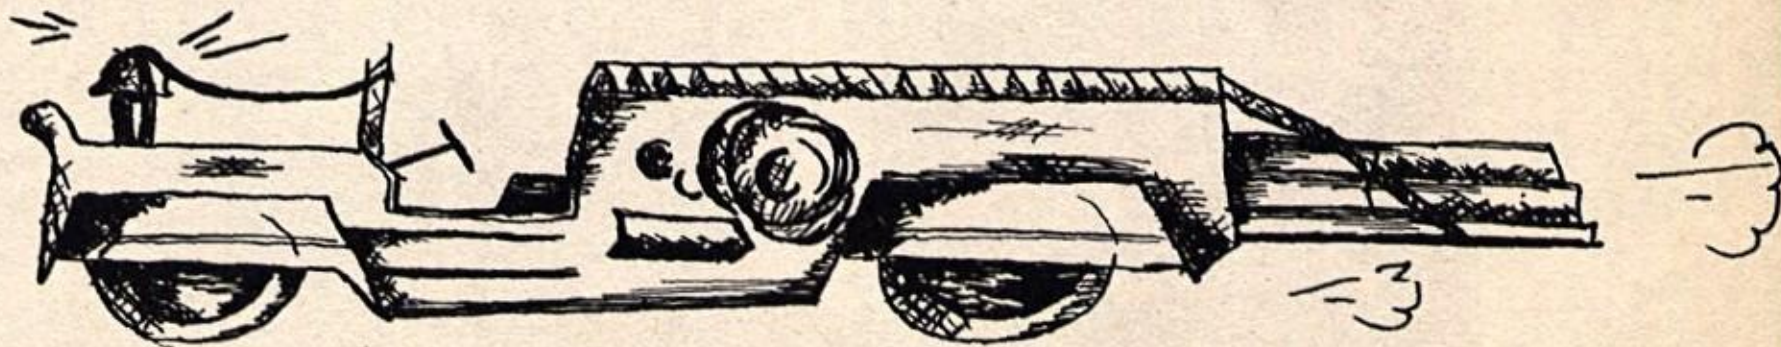

SERVICE CLUB

Sandra Friedman Pres.

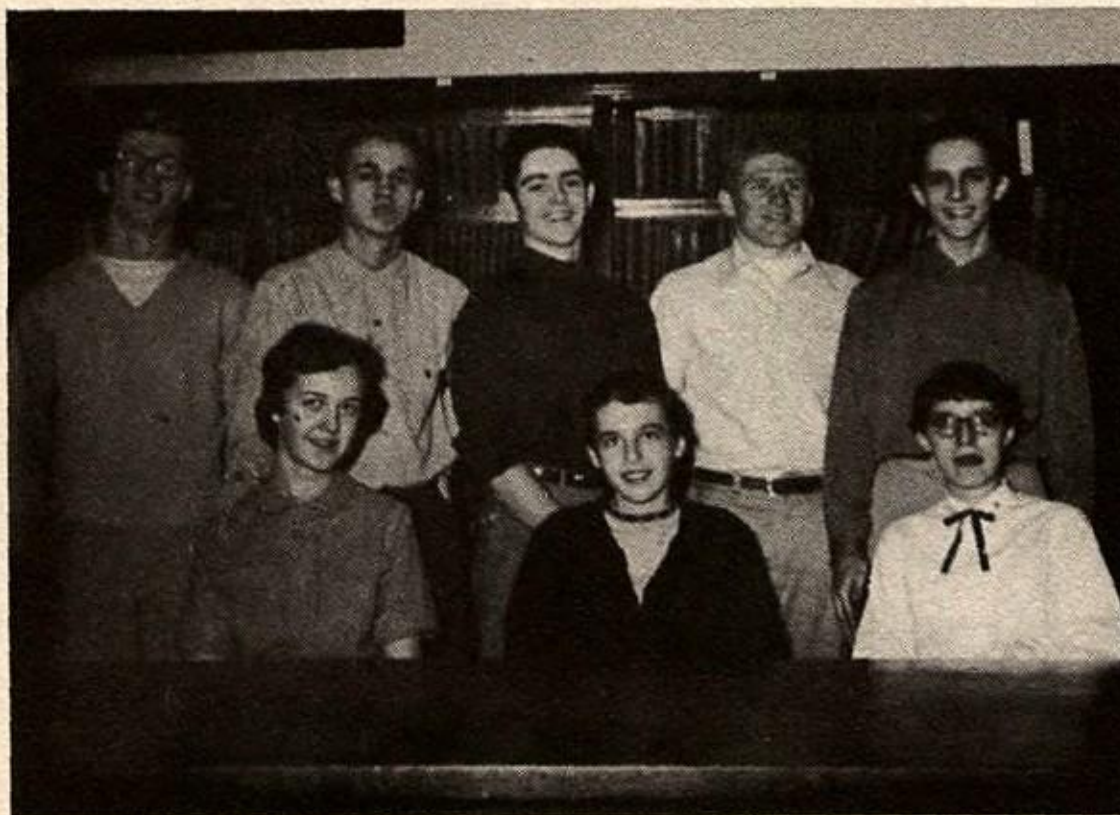

Bev Metzuk Secy.

This year, as in previous years, Service Club has made it possible for many pupils to improve their understanding of their subjects. The purpose of the club is to help students who are having trouble with their subjects because of absence or lack of background. The club's advisor is Mr. Hafey.

CLASS PROJECTS

HONOR STUDY HALLS

HONOR STUDY HALL BOARD:

Gary Bezella, Jim Fetterly, Tom Howell, Gerald Roszak, Paul Williams, Signy Svanoe, Marian Kreuse, Joan Hoffman.

The Honor Study Hall Board is under the "green thumb" of Miss Henry, who has furthered its growth as a functioning project of the school. Not only does this system fulfill the requirements for study halls, but it provides valuable opportunities for students to gain experience in handling people.

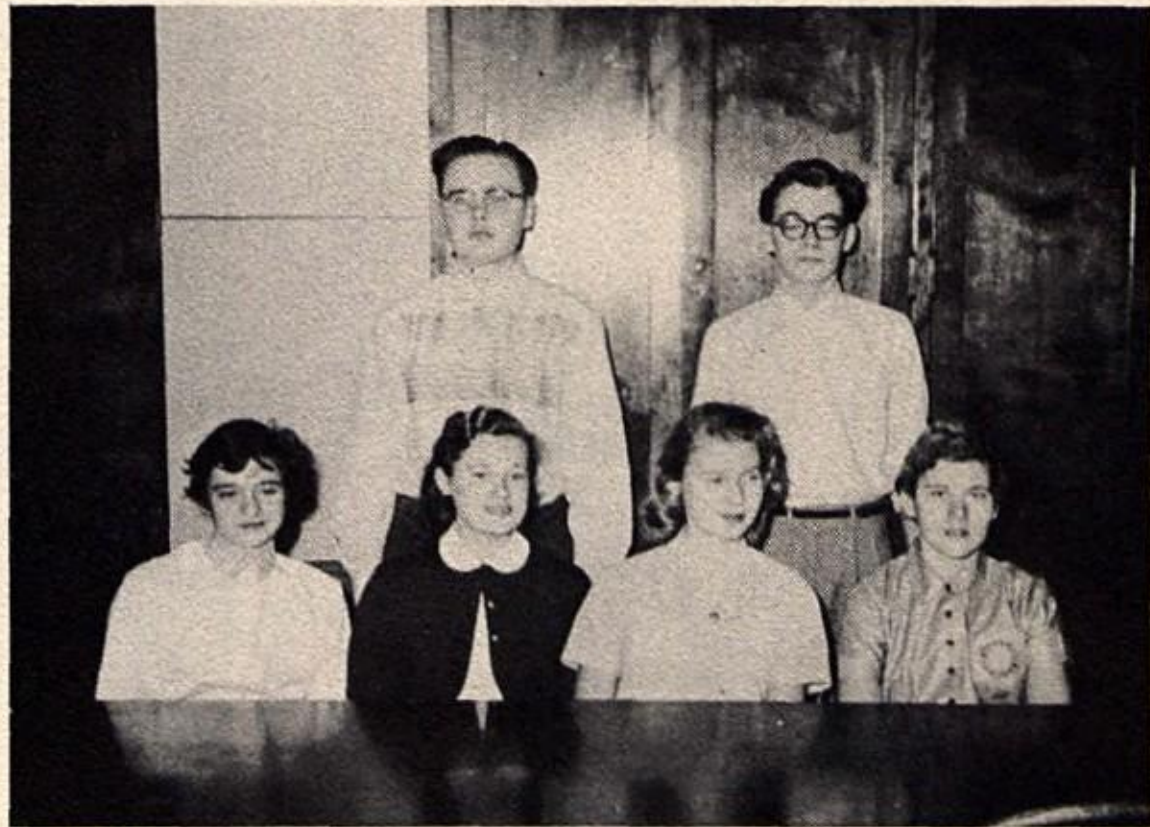

NOON HALL PATROL

All the "noon sneakers" who vainly attempt to roam the halls and clutter the floors can testify to the efficiency of the Noon Hall Patrol. Under the supervision of Mr. Engen, the halls and auditorium are kept clean and orderly at noon.

HALL PATROL

The project of maintaining proper conduct in the halls during classes is that of the sophomore class, sponsored by Mr. Otto. They check lockers, run errands, and act as guides for visitors.

Bruce Hassig, John Fier, Nancy Chester, Zaiga Starkis, Mirtza Saulitis, Marilyn Austermann. Absent: Sue Penner.

LOST AND FOUND

Just as in large places of business, Riverside also has its public services. One of these is the Lost and Found. This service is run by the freshmen; not by the little "lost" freshies, but rather by the ones who have "found" themselves in their second semester.

The Junior-Senior Play this year, "Fanchon the Cricket," was somewhat of an experiment, as it was different from the usual type of play given. This play, the story of a young French girl, ostracized from the rest of the village because of her "witch" grandmother, was brought to the stage for the first time in Milwaukee. Long hours of hard work were well rewarded by the excellent final performance.

Camaraderie means friendship, and that is just exactly the theme of the club. As Riverside's girls' club, it is open to every girl in the school. High-points in the year's list of activities include: Pigtail Day, Mothers' Tea, Football Hop, Christmas Project, and the prom, "Some Enchanted Evening." With the credit going to Mrs. Mathiowetz, Miss DeMarsh, Miss Dunaway and Miss Zeman, the year was a big success.

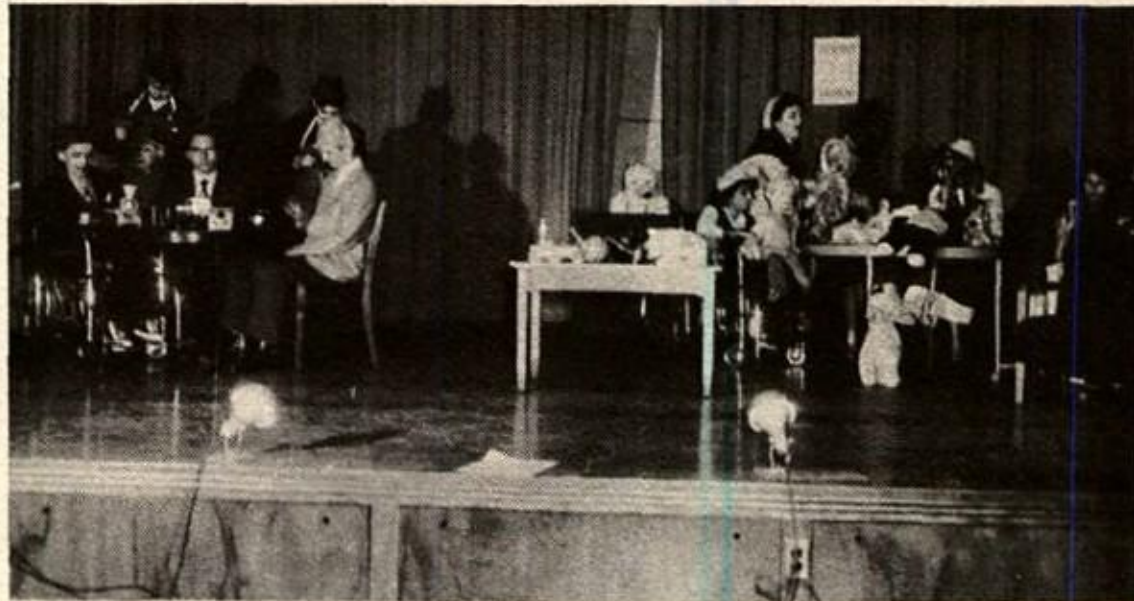

MARY LUGGREN

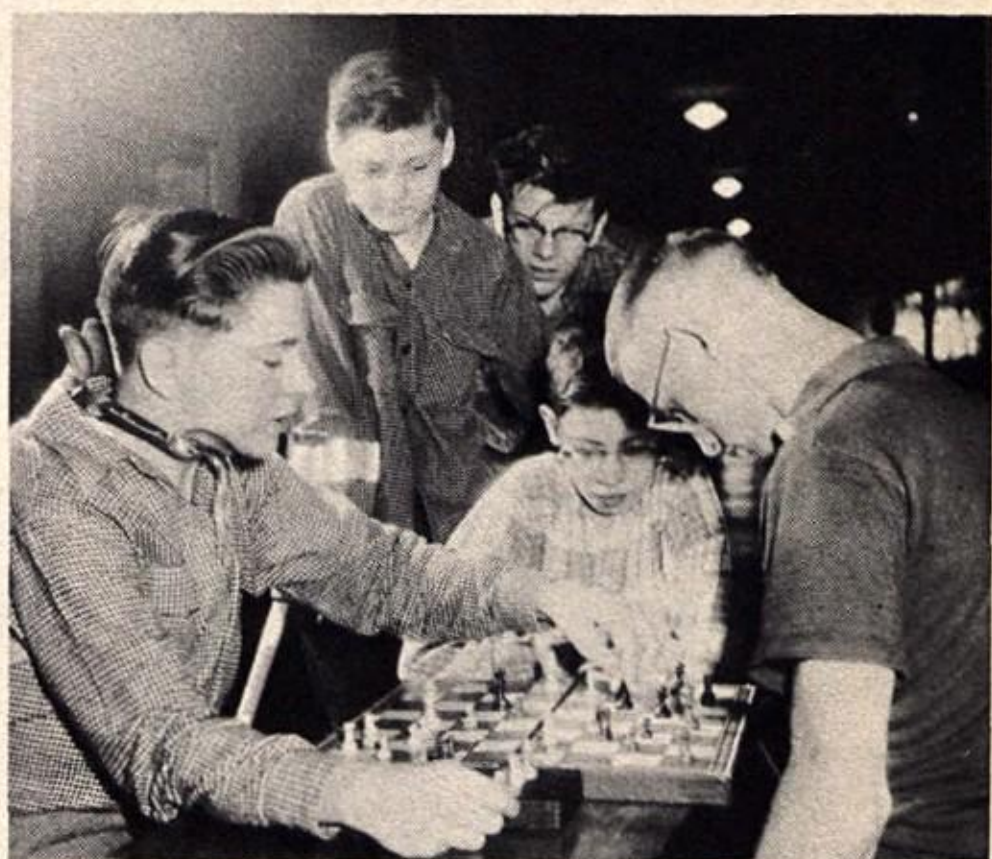

GAENSLEN

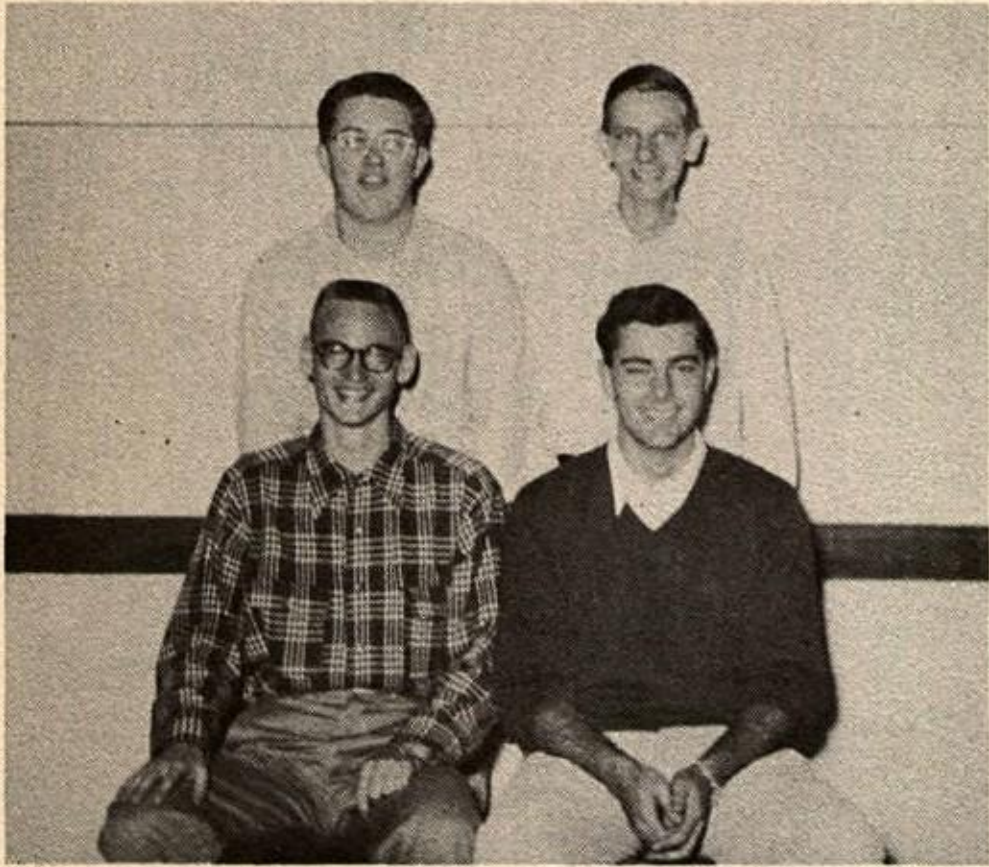

A few blocks north of Riverside on the west bank of the Milwaukee River stands the F. J. Gaenslen School. The facilities of this modern sun-lit building include a beautiful swimming pool, a rec room, and a cafeteria. The school's academic services range from kindergarten through high school; the physical therapy department assists in developing stronger bodies and better health. Each year its graduating seniors join the Riverside graduates in their commencement exercises.

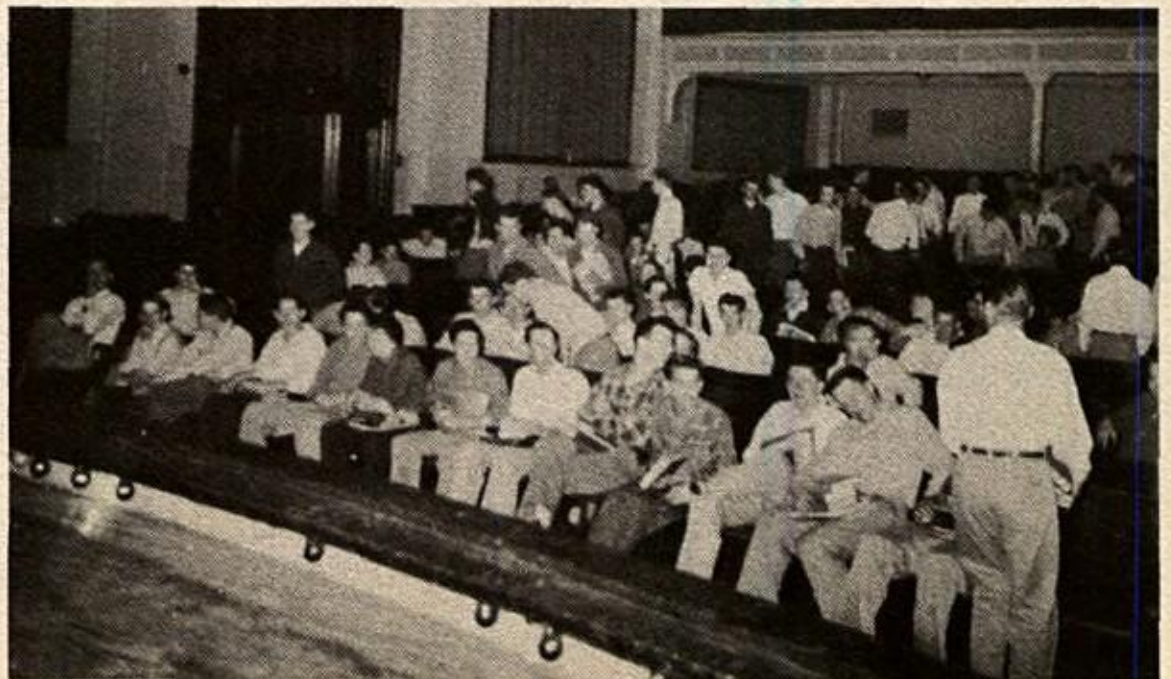

"MACBETH"

CAVALIERS

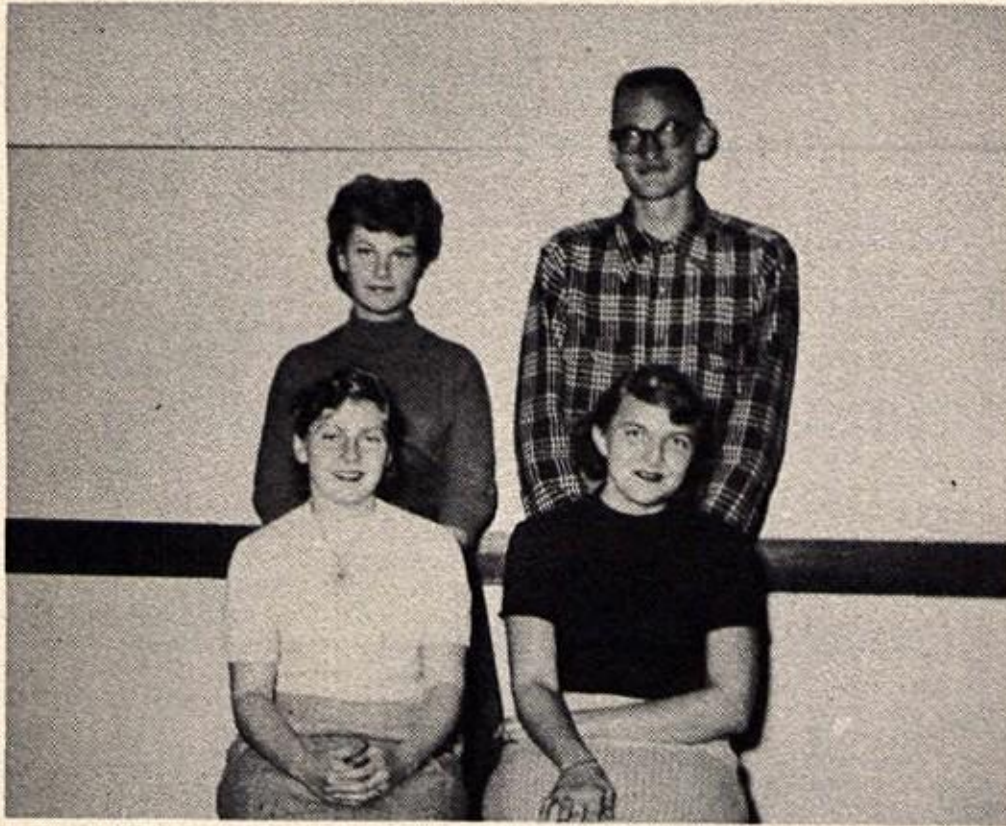

Peter Jensen, William Kramer, Art Loos, Dick Aaron.

Cavaliers is a club open to every boy at Riverside. The club provides an opportunity for the boys to get service projects and entertainment. Under Mr. Procknow's watchful eye, they assist with the collection of Thanksgiving baskets and, together with Cam, sponsor the Football Hop and the Prom.

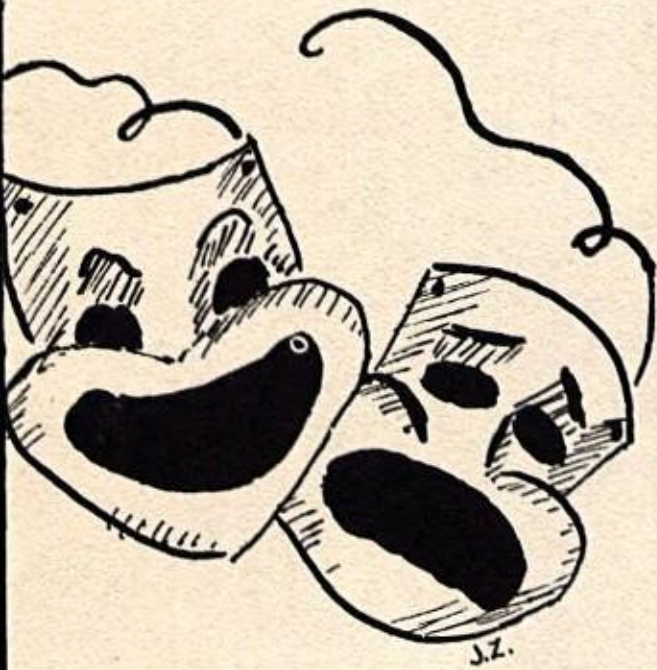

CUE CLUB

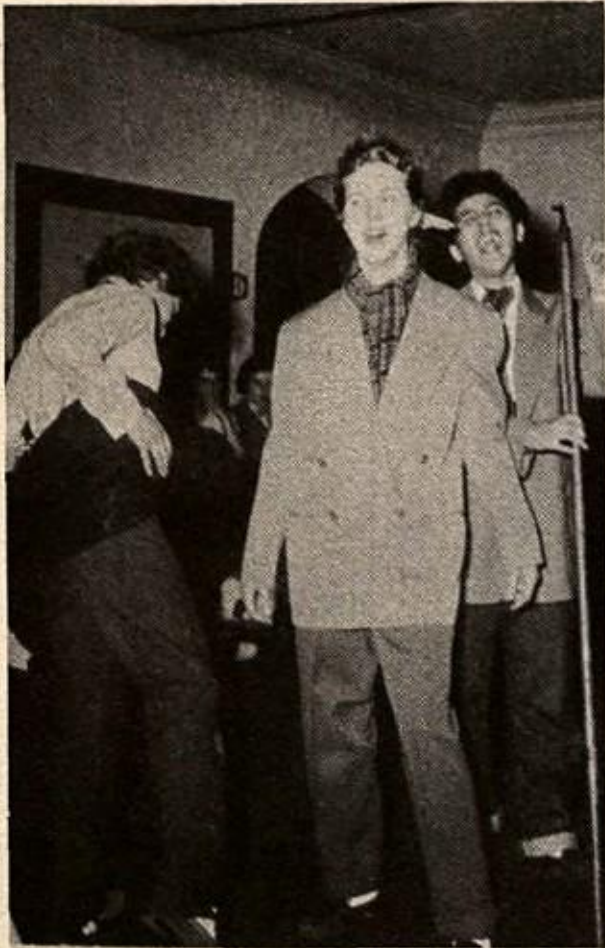

Nancy Krizek, Vice Pres.; Art Laos, Pres.; Darby Ewald, Secy.; Barbara Bergstrom, Treas.

The purpose of Cue, our dramatics club, is to give its members the opportunity to take part in dramatic presentations both for their own enjoyment and for that of the whole school. Under the guidance of Miss Bodden and Mr. Holmes, Cue Club helps promote the Jr.-Sr. play and sponsors the Forensic Contest.

ALLEN CLUB

The Y teen girls' club at Riverside is Allen Club. The purpose of this club is to create friendship among the girls as well as to interest them in worthwhile service to the school and community. This year the supervision was divided between Miss Green and Mrs. Boltz. Highlights of the year include the Mothers' Tea and installation of officers, a tin can breakfast, and a weekend at Lake Genesee.

HI-Y

Hi-Y is a boys' club affiliated with the Y.M.C.A. Along with many other activities, they co-operated with the Y.W.C.A. to sponsor the Good Friday breakfast.

THE "LINE UP."

Dave Sutton, Pres.; Dorothea Mueller, Secy.; Ken Nix, Vice Pres.

ART CLUB

Diane Lorenz, Treas.; Sue Hecker, Vice Pres.; Debby Douglas, Pres.; Mary Lou Gregg, Secy.

Anyone interested in drawing and painting would enjoy being a member of Art Club. Guided by Miss Skinner, the club designed all the scenery used for the Jr.-Sr. play, Christmas and Thanksgiving programs, and any other plays and skits.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Elaine Turowski, Marcia Kent, Ione Bader, Dotty Meide, Pres.

It is a tradition at Riverside that Home Economics Club sponsors the Honor Dinner. In order to continue this practice, the club held a bake and apron sale at Open House, and a style show for the school. These activities are directed by Miss O'Neill ably assisted by Miss Coffelt.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB

The purpose of Foreign Language Club is to promote international goodwill and understanding of other nations among Riverside's students. The main activity of the club is sponsoring United Nations Day. This year Foreign Language Club was given the "continental" touch by its advisor, Miss Dunaway, who spent last year in Europe.

Bev Metzruk, Marilyn Jones, Nancy Phelps, Nancy Chester, Lois Torkelson, Sue Hecker.

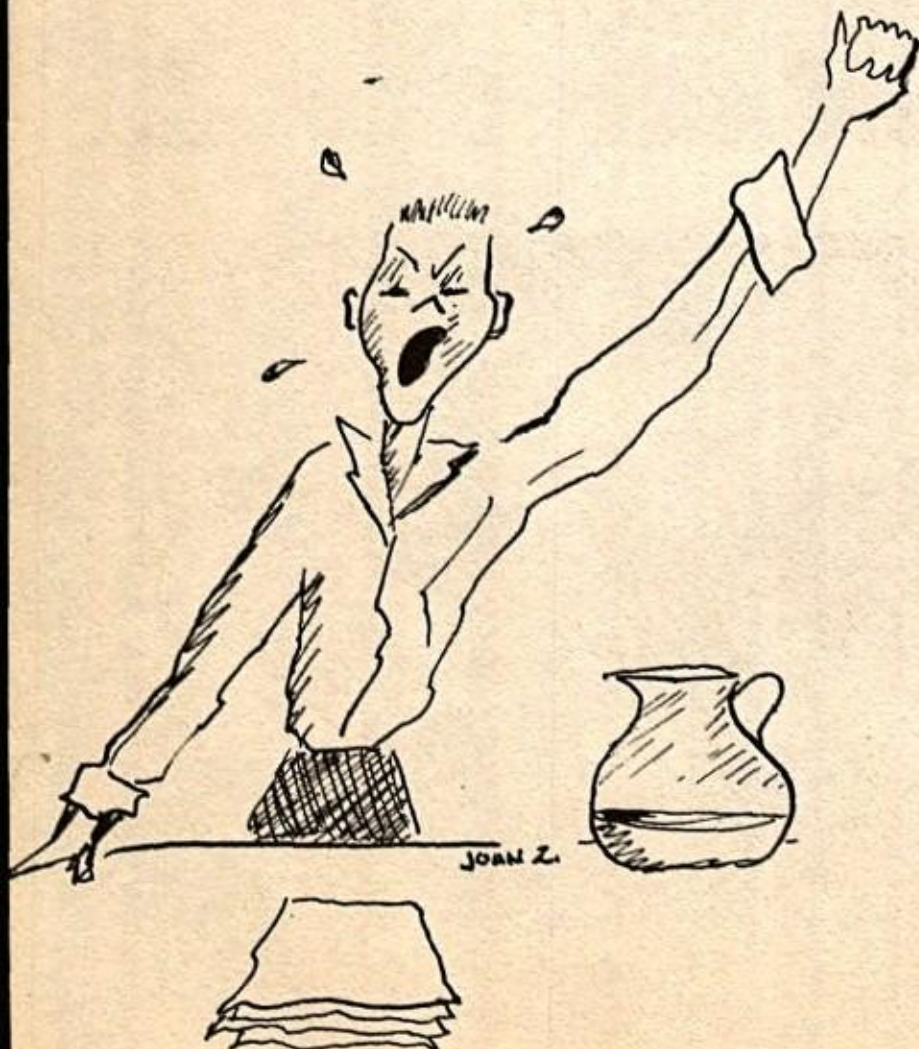

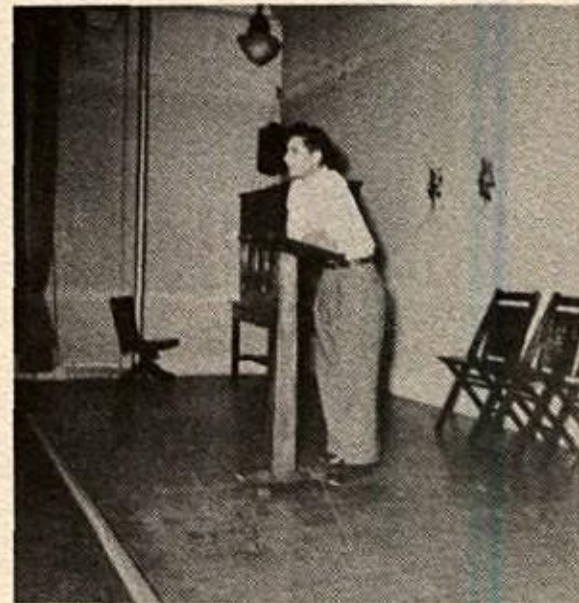

ORIENT-CRESCENT

Dave Cary, John Baron, Pres., Lisette Ahtman, Sandra Friedman.

If you are one who likes to argue, why not join Orient-Crescent and make it profitable. Coached by Mr. Ashford, the club discussed and debated on a variety of subjects this past year. It helps students to learn to think logically and help them to overcome stage fright.

STAGE CREW

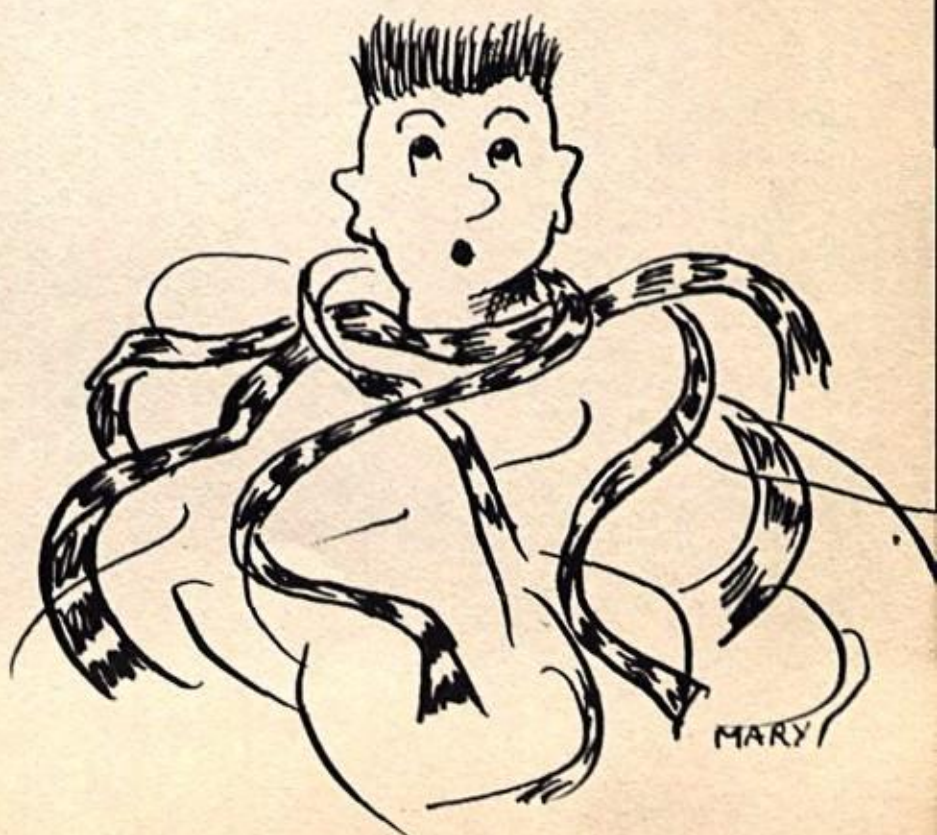

Mr. Suchy, Art Loos, Roger Lundholm, Merry Valee, Tom Rice, Dick Aaron, Joe Nelson, David Cory.

One of the most time-consuming services to the school is done by the stage crew. They run the stage behind the scenes for every auditorium program. One of their outstanding projects was the lighting and stage settings for the J.S. play. This busy staff is directed by Mr. Suchy.

MOVIE CREW

The movie crew is responsible for all visual aid instruction in the school. They also take care of showing the slides for community singing. Mr. Raynes is the advisor.

PROM

An enchanting evening was had by all who attended this year's spring prom, "Some Enchanted Evening." Bob Stevens and his orchestra were a special treat because they provided a floor show as well as the dance music. The dancers swayed under waving palm trees, glittering stars, and a great crystal ball. Dottie Meide and Ron Makowski reigned for the evening as prom king and queen. On May 1, Hawaii had truly come to life in the new gym.

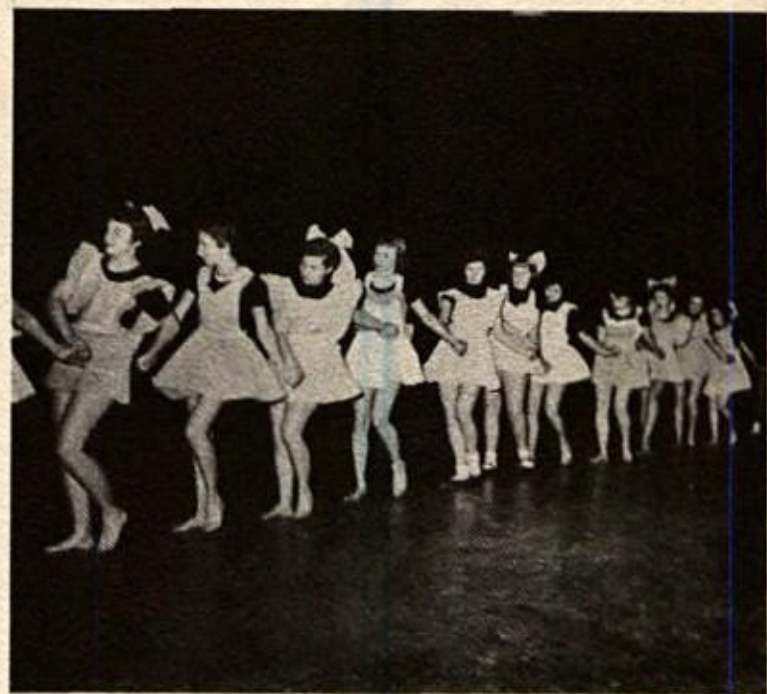

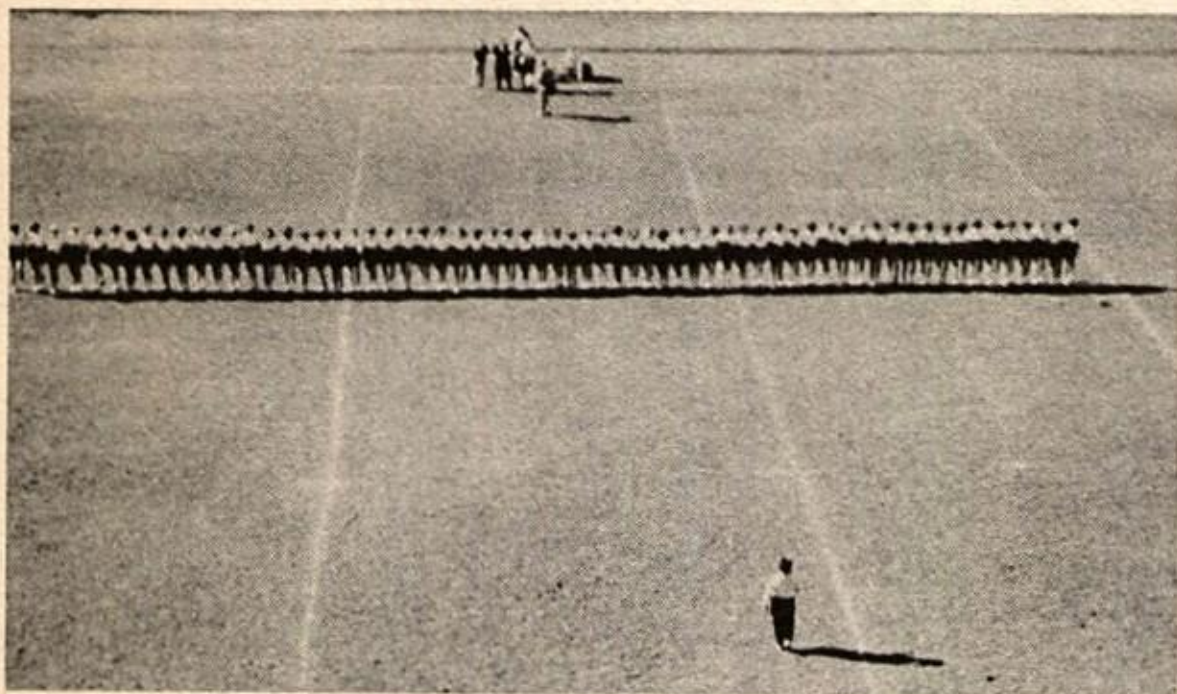

PROM COURT OF HONOR:

Myron Stamos, Rose Kosmeider, Arthur Huth, Barbara Lebowsky, Ronald Makowsky (King), Dorothy Meide (Queen), Jean Turow, James Welch, Joan Hoffmann, Tom Street, Dorothy Balistreri, Gerald Stoltman.

DANCE GROUP AND ROCKETTES

Two new groups were added to the already long list of activities provided by the girls' physical education department this year. The first one formed was the RIVERSIDE ROCKETTES, a drill team which entertained the spectators between halves at football and basketball games. Later in the year, a dance group was formed which specializes in developing dances for various programs in the course of the year. Both activities are well supported due to the tireless efforts of Mrs. Laden and Miss Green.

See you (poor thing)
 Love & luck,

To Bea—the sweetest smartest gal at Genesee. Take care of Allen club and say Hi

Dear Ben Flash hasn't we had fun this past year? Especially at the dinner. We're having a watermelon party tonight
(no sophomores) the remainder of dinner. He's hoping see a lot more of you next year. Always
Yours
(Gustav)

shirt, and why don't you be one of the gang and ship out of this home-

atmosphere is stifling.
See you this summer?
How about that P.T. party.
